

Position Title: Doctor of Chiropractic

The Doctor of Chiropractic is a critical role within our growing wellness and chiropractic center located in Edmonton, Alberta. Primary function of this role is to provide patient adjustments, x-rays and marketing support. Based on your performance, you have the ability to make well over $100,000 per year!

- Do you love helping people get better health?
- Are you passionate about chiropractic, love to teach, AND give talks to serve more people?
- Do you love being part of a team and a mission to make a big difference?
- Could you adjust all day long and still have energy because that is what you love to do?
- If so, we may have the perfect fit for you....

Our Purpose: To lead people towards fulfilled lives through laws and principles of healthy living through the vehicle of Chiropractic Values, Principles and Philosophy.

Social Mission: To unleash the optimal healing potential of every human being in our community, one family at a time, by the power of the adjustment, and freeing of their mind on the truth of what health really is.

We are unique as we have a system that is a doctor to doctor relationship

We teach our patients personal responsibility over their health with corrective care chiropractic systems

We have a mission to reach out and get the message of chiropractic out to every single person in our community

We aren't an office that seeks to see a few people a day, but believe that we can serve many at the highest level and we are in the top 1 percent of 1 percent as far as volume, value and results....
