FROM THE DIRECTOR

SUSAN P. ISON

The last edition of AHA! featured our new off-site collection storage space. One of the happy consequences of a large off-site facility is that we now have more room to collect items significant to Loveland's history.

I'd like to share a recent acquisition – ten boxes of documents and objects from the descendants of Mary Blair. Mary was born in College Springs, Iowa and moved to Loveland with her parents in 1881. After attending college in Iowa, she began teaching at Stove Prairie (above Masonville) and then at Lone Tree (southwest of Loveland) before entering the Loveland school system.

Mary taught 7th grade at Lincoln School, built in 1908 (the current Walgreen's site at Hwy 34/Lincoln Avenue). She later served as principal, and in 1941, retired from her 50-year teaching career.

On what would have been her 100th birthday, Mary Blair Elementary School was dedicated in her memory.

We are very fortunate that her descendants took such good care of her collection. Unpacking the objects, a few of which are pictured on this page, will be a continuous journey of discovery.

A Collector's Vision

PICASSO • CHAGALL • MATISSE • MIRÓ

September 3 – November 27, 2016

MAIN GALLERY

Exhibit Admission: $5, free for Museum members

EXHIBIT FREE DAYS: Tuesday, September 20 and Thursday, October 6

Free admission during Night on the Town on Fridays, September 9 and October 14 from 6 – 9 pm

This exhibition celebrates some of the most influential artists of the 20th century including Pablo Picasso, Henri Matisse, Marc Chagall, Joan Miró, Salvador Dalí, Erte, Toulouse-Lautrec, and Auguste Renoir. These artists were among the trailblazers of their time, an era defined by artistic leaps in freedom from academia constraints. This private collection reinforces the sense of time that was 1920s Paris and creates a visual feast of line play and compositional delight.

Included in this exhibition are lithographs, etchings, linocuts, and ceramics addressing a wide variety of subject matter ranging from the human body to biblical interpretations.

Picasso, Matisse, Chagall, Miró: A Collector's Vision features more than 90 works of art, rarely on public view, and is the result of many years of research and acquisition by a private collector. The exhibition not only underscores the importance of each iconic artist to the challenges of modern art, but, seen as a whole, is a carefully constructed perspective from an individual whose complete vision is a work of art in itself.

EXHIBIT PROGRAMMING

GALLERY WALK-AND-TALK WITH JIM RICHERSON

Friday, September 9, 6 pm

Enjoy a gallery walk with Jim Richerson and the collector whose artwork graces this exhibit. Topics will include the decision-making process for collecting art, specifically the relationship of the three artists, Picasso, Matisse and Chagall; the mood of pre-WW II Paris and why "The City of Lights" attracted so many artists of the time; printing techniques; Picasso and the Cubist movement in art; Matisse's minimalist linocut prints; and the dream-like quality found within the oeuvre of Marc Chagall.

Jim Richerson is the Executive Director of Sangre de Cristo Arts Center, Pueblo, Colorado

STRINGS IN THE GALLERY

ROBERT MANGOLD: ERRATIC ENERGIES

PTTSAAES WALL SCULPTURES

On view through September 18, 2016

FOOTE GALLERY

Robert Mangold's series, PTTSAAES (Point Traveling Through Space At An Erratic Speed) can be seen as the culmination of his diverse efforts to integrate investigations of both space and movement as embodied in sculptural form. With colorful piping positioned to form angular joints that appear to burst through the walls, the viewer's interaction with the sculpture is as important as the exhibit itself, as the eye follows the line from segment to segment.

LES DINERS DE GALA BY SALVADOR DALÍ

THE TWELVE LITHOGRAPH SUITE

On view through December 4, 2016

GREEN ROOM GALLERY

The book, Les Dinners de Gala (Gala's Dinners), was published in 1973 and instantly became a Salvador Dalí collectible. In conjunction with the release of the book Dalí also produced a twelve lithograph suite (printed in 1971). This portfolio, complete with a distinctive engraving in the lower margin of each work titled Spoon with Crutches, is a Surrealist twist on some of Dalí's favorite meals.

This unique cookbook was published as a collaboration between Dalí, his wife Gala, and a secret chef. The "secret chef" turned out to be chefs from the top French restaurants of the day. Their goal was to produce magnificent meals fit for a royal feast!

This exhibition is organized and traveled by the Castellani Art Museum at Niagara University, and is curated by Michael J. Beam, Curator of Exhibitions at the Castellani Art Museum.

MODERN DEVOTION: SANTOS Y SANTERAS

CATHERINE ROBLES-SHAW AND LYDIA GARCIA

December 17, 2016 – February 5, 2017

GREEN ROOM GALLERY

Meet the Artist Reception:

Saturday, December 17, 11 am – 1 pm

Additional artwork will be available for purchase

The art of Santos (painted and carved images of saints) is rooted in a four-hundred year old artistic tradition, originally intended to be used as a teaching tool by Catholic missionaries. As with any tradition, it is an ever-emerging art form, influenced by the movement of people, the growth of communities, and artistic explorations. Experience this colorful and spiritually engaging traditional art through the work of two important santeras (craftspeople of holy images), Colorado artist Catherine Robles-Shaw and Lydia Garcia.

LIVING SAINTS: PHOTOGRAPHS BY ALEX HARRIS

December 3, 2016 – February 5, 2017

FOOTE GALLERY

Opening Celebration: Saturday, December 17, 11 am – 1 pm

The art of devotional objects is explored with a series of color photographs by Alex Harris from the collection of the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center. In 1972, Harris made a rural Hispanic village high in the Sangre de Cristo Mountains his home. For over twenty years, he documented the lives and culture of this Hispanic region. This series of photographs uncovers the many ways sacred images permeate everyday life and how they are intrinsic to the life of a community. This exhibit is presented in conjunction with Modern Devotion: Santos y Santeras.

Alex Harris was raised in the South and lives in Durham, North Carolina. His work is represented in major collections including The San Francisco Museum of Modern Art, The J. Paul Getty Museum in Los Angeles, The Museum of Modern Art in New York, The High Museum of Art in Atlanta, The North Carolina Museum of Art, and the Metropolitan Museum of Art. His photographs have been exhibited in numerous museums including two solo exhibitions at the International Center of Photography in New York. He is currently Professor of the Practice of Public Policy and Documentary Studies at Duke University.

PASSPORT TO PAINTING

December 10, 2016 – February 19, 2017

MAIN GALLERY

Public Opening Celebration and Artist Meet-and-Greet
Friday, December 9, 6 – 8 pm

Exhibit Admission: $5, free for Museum members

EXHIBIT FREE DAYS: Thursday, January 12 and Tuesday, February 14

Free admission during Night on the Town on Fridays, December 9, January 13, and February 10 from 6 – 9 pm

This retrospective exhibition includes more than 100 works of art including watercolor, oil, pastel and ink drawings, wood sculpture, a display of sketchbooks, and diary entries from artistic journeys and charitable associations. Seen together, these components form a narrative of a life defined by art, the love of nature, and the value of service to those in need. From the grasslands of Africa to the prairies of Nebraska, Schilling captured his encounters through beautifully wrought sketchbooks and impressionistic landscapes. With written reflections and descriptions of places and experiences, this body of work shows the discipline that guided his artistic study and the inspiration behind these remarkable paintings. Schilling's journey encompasses the pursuit of worldly experiences; a spiritual voyage of understanding and growth; and an artistic drive that continues on through this legacy of creativity.

Dr. Richard Schilling was born and raised in Nebraska and earned his bachelor's and doctorate of dental surgery degrees from the University of Nebraska-Lincoln. Now retired from dentistry, Dr. Schilling is a lifelong artist. He has authored several articles and books about painting and sketching, including Portraits of the Prairie (University of Nebraska Press, 2011) and Watercolor Journeys, (North Light Books, 2003). Schilling has exhibited in solo and group exhibitions in Nebraska, New York, Texas, and Northern Colorado. He has received the Arts for the Parks Top One Hundred award twice, in 1996 and 2004, a national recognition awarded by the National Park Academy of the Arts, and was chosen Artist-in-Residence at Mesa Verde National Park in 2006. Schilling lives in Loveland, Colorado.
