

NPC West Coast Classic Competitor Information

Updated November 16, 2016

Congratulations for choosing the NPC West Coast Classic! It's our mission to provide an experience with the highest quality of service that you will remember for a lifetime. If this is your first show or your twentieth show you'll quickly see that the NPC West Coast Classic is unlike any other, bringing you the best. Everything from the stunning venue all the way to your competitor button is unique and special.

The NPC & IFBB

The NPC West Coast Classic is an amateur competition. We are sanctioned by the National Physique Committee (NPC). The reason to compete in the NPC is not only the largest bodybuilding organization, offering the most shows, it is also the only path to the Olympia. Here is how it works:

You compete as an amateur in an NPC "National Qualifier", such as the NPC West Coast Classic. If you compete in an "open" class and place 1st, 2nd and in some cases 3rd, you qualify to compete in a national contest for professional status. An "open" class is a class that is not restricted by age and is not novice. For example novice bodybuilding or master's bikini would not be considered an open class and therefore do not qualify you for a national contest when competing in these classes.

The top 2 who will win most national show will then earn their Pro Card. This allows the competitor to compete free of charge and for a cash prize. The IFBB is the sanctioning body for professional athletes similar to how the NFL is the sanctioning body for professional Football. By either winning a show or earning the most points, top pros will then qualify for the Olympia, which is both an honor and an opportunity to become the best in the world.

Professional Conduct

Conducting ourselves with sportsman like and considerate behavior is essential for a fantastic experience for everyone and to assure we can continue to call the beautiful Fox Riverside Theater as the home of the NPC West Coast Classic.

On show day you probably feel horrible. You may be hungry, exhausted, nervous and anxious. So is everyone else. Please treat each other with generosity, respect and support.

Treat the venue as you would your own home. Be acutely aware of your tanning and messes you may leave behind. Here are some tips:

- Wear only long pants and long sleeves while outside of the back stage area to protect seating, walls and other furnishing. Ushers will ask you to leave if you are not in proper attire.
- Cover the toilet seats. You may have a great glutes but we don't need to see where they have been.
- Your hotel will charge you for stained towels, toilet seats, showers, sheets, etc. Wear long sleeves and pants to sleep or bring your own sheets. You should also bring your own towels. Protect the toilet seat in your room.
- Clean up after yourself. Do not leave food or trash anywhere but in your bags or trash. The venue makes an exception to their no outside food rule just for us. Please help us respect and appreciate their generosity.
- Use common sense, we have seen people do some really weird stuff (i.e. pee in a cup back stage and leave it) Don't be that type of person.
- Children are never allowed backstage

Competition Preparations

Tanning

Tanning can make or break you. It would be a shame to work so hard for 12 weeks and not place due to a bad tan. A competition tan is much darker than you'll get naturally or at a tanning salon. You will stick out (in a bad way) with that type of tan. Tanning in a bottle will look blotchy and uneven. The best bet is always to go with the contest-tanning partner. They will be with you until the time you walk out on stage and will provide any touch ups and glazing. No other tanners will be allowed back stage.

Be sure to prep your skin for tanning. Luffa for several days before the show. Shower shortly before tanning and wear no deodorant or lotions.

Tanning times and location: All tanning will take place back stage at the Fox Performing Arts Center (event venue), starting Friday, June 16.

Please note there is a $20 late fee for tans booked after June 9.

Our Tanning partner Martini Spray tan will be in touch with you to schedule your appointment within 2 weeks of the show.**

You can purchase tanning from our registration page at www.npcwestcoast.com/register

Once tanning is purchased you can schedule your tan time at www.martinispraytan.com

For questions please TEXT our Tanning manager at 702-281-6124

Photography

This is the best shape of your life and you want to capture it! Also, should you want feedback from the judges they will need to see professional stage photos. Cell phone photos simply do not have the resolution that judges need to give you effective feedback.

You can purchase photography from our registration page at www.npcwestcoast.com/register

For questions regarding photography, please email our photographer at booking@marcellorostagni.com

Make-up

Competition make-up is like competition tanning. It is far more extreme than anything you would wear in public. Improper make-up can make you look pale. This is especially important, as not only is your physique judged but your over-all look and femininity. All make-up and hair takes place back stage in the dressing rooms.

Our hair/Make-up manager will be in touch with you to schedule your appointment once you have purchased your services within 2 weeks of the show.

Please note there is a $20 late fee for services booked after June 9.

You can purchase make-up from our registration page at www.npcwestcoast.com/register

For questions please email our make-up artist at foufoumakeup@gmail.com

Trainer pass

The back stage trainer pass can be purchased to allow your trainer back stage to assist you with your final preparations for competition. Every trainer must purchase a pass for back stage access. To maintain an environment free of preferential treatment and politics, every trainer is required to purchase a pass without exception.

- Pass is for TRAINERS ONLY, family, children or friends are not permitted. (unless they are your trainer)
- Limit 1 pass per competitor.
- Pass must be purchased by a registered competitor.
- No professional tanning, photography or videography will be permitted under any circumstance.
- Failure to adhere to these guidelines will result in expulsion and disqualification.

A group of general admission seats reserved for trainers and competitors will be available for watching the show. These seats cannot be held by individuals and will be offered on a first come-first served basis.

You can purchase a trainer pass from our registration page at www.npcwestcoast.com/register

Posing

Posing is one of the most overlook parts of competing. Proper posing can be the difference between 1st and 10th place. We highly recommend you work with an experienced posing coach. Take many videos and photos as you approach competition to find tune your posing. Practice your posing many times a day. It is always disappointing to see a competitor who clearly worked hard on diet and training but did not put in their time practicing their posing.

Things to bring to the competition

- NPC Card - You will need one to compete. If you don't have one, you can purchase online at www.NPCNewsOnline.com or at check-ins for $125. (Cash or check only for NPC Cards)
- Gym bag for your clothes and food
- Resistance bands - although we have some weights in the pump up room, it will be very busy. Resistance bands are a great way to get pumped up back stage.
- Towel - prepare to sweat
- Layers - you may be hot or cold. There are variations in the venue plus your body does weird things when prepping for a show! Also when you get cold your muscles flatten out and you'll lose vascularity.
- Clothing - prepare to be covered in tanning, so wear black. Loose cloths like sweat pants or a robe are best to keep your tan looking good. Flip-flops are recommended for footwear.
- Extra Razor - in case you missed a spot
- Hand held mirror - As you may sweat, you may need touch ups.
- Bodybuilders and Women's Physique bring your music for your routines to check-in. Other divisions do not need to bring music.

Things NOT to bring

- Professional camera equipment
- Professional video equipment
- Unsanctioned professional tanners
- Unsanctioned professional Make-up artists

Violations will result in disqualification.

SHOW TIME - Your key information for the show.

Venue - Fox Performing Arts Center - To make it as easy and convenient as possible everything takes place at the venue. Here you will find check-ins, athlete meetings, tanning, make-up, and expo.

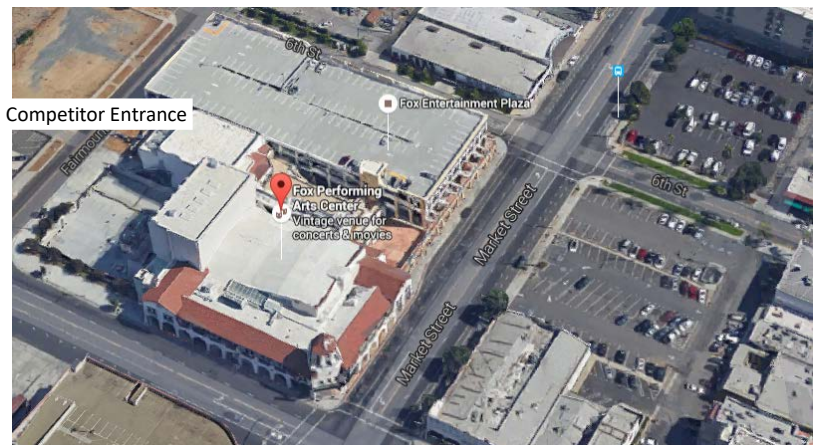

Fox Performing Arts Center

Order of Classes

It's extremely important that you are ready once your class is called to stage. If you miss your class you will automatically be placed last. It is your responsibility to listen for your class, your name and number may not be called!!! We recommend that you identify the class that is FIVE classes ahead of yours and at that time begin pumping up and preparing for your class to be called.

There are not set times for when your class will be called as the show times will vary based on number of competitors and speed of judging.

The order will be the same for Pre-judging & Finals

Stage Instructions & Routines

NPC Pre-Judging

All Divisions

THERE IS NO FREE POSING ROUND

Athletes line up in numerical/alpha order off stage. Up to 8 athletes will go on stage to the judging line. If there are more than 8 athletes, the group will be split in half or by 5.

If it is less than 8 judging and "call outs" take place.

If there are 2 or more groups, comparisons will take place. After comparisons, competitors will move to the diagonals filling in from stage left front to the back and then stage right back to the front.

Judges will then call each "call out", 5-6 competitors at a time; running competitors through mandatory poses. Stage expeditor assist in identifying athletes in the call out and moving them to the appropriate spot as the judge requests. Please be know your button number as the judges will use this to identify you.

NPC Finals

First Half go to stage left; second half go to stage right if needed. When you go to Stage right fill from upstage (back) to downstage (front).

The entire group will be on stage as awards are called. After first place is called, non-placing competitors will leave the stage on the side they are standing.

Cross-overs – If you cross over into more than on class, you will pose and/or walk only one time. You will wait with other cross-overs and all will enter the stage after "non-cross-over" competitor complete their walk.

Classic Physique, Bodybuilding & Women's Physique

- Competitor will perform up to 1 minute posing routine
- TOP 5 will be brought out to stand on stage LEFT diagonal
- Awards are presented in descending order to the top 5
